Ask yourself this question. Are you just living your life or creating it?

By creating your life with positive intention, you harness the power of thought and action and drive yourself to success. Every day we are faced with challenges and obstacles to overcome. Learn how to use positive, mindful actions to reach your goals and achieve success. Key takeaways from this presentation include:

- How to accept where you are, define your goals and create the outcome you desire
- The importance of using positive intention to infuse new possibilities personally and professionally
- How deliberate choices create focus, motivation, and opportunities to align with others to achieve your dreams

Please join us for the Women's Power Luncheon Series featuring keynote guest speaker Jacqueline Camacho-Ruiz an award-winning entrepreneur, national speaker, philanthropist and author of seven books.

The Women's Power Luncheon Series has been designed to inform, inspire and engage aspiring women, decision makers and leaders on contemporary business and life topics.
